

The flow chart below depicts how participants enter the system through screening and referral as shown on the top and right side of the center circle, and are then connected to home visiting programs, Medicaid health plan services and case management, and other community services and support via Connect as shown on the bottom and left side of the center circle.

